Revival Scheme by BIFR

5282. SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether, in the BIFR hearing held on 20th September, 1994 in regard to Tyre Corporation of India Limited (TCIL), all the Banks including the Lead Bank-Allahabad Bank, were agreeable to the provisions of the revival scheme formulated by BIFR;

(b) whether, inspite of the above, after the notification of the draft revival scheme by BIFR on 30th December, 1994 under Section 19(2) read with Section 19(1) of SICA, 1985, Allahabad Bank had put some new conditionalities to BIFR in February, 1995;

(c) if so, whether the Bench in its hearing on 6th March, 1995 had strongly reprimanded the lead Bank for such a reversal of stand affecting the revival of a sick public sector company; and

(d) what action has been taken by the Finance Ministry to ensure that Banks do not change their stand to jeopardise the revival process through BIFR?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) to (c) The Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) has reported that in its hearing on 20.09.1994, there was broad agreement amongst all concerned parties (including banks) on the relative provisions in the revival package prepared by the operating agency for Kakinara and Tangra units of the Tyre Corporation of India Ltd. (TCIL). Accordingly, a draft revival scheme for Kakinara and Tangra units of TCIL, as two independent profit centres, was circulated to all concerned vide BIFR's Order dated 13.12.1994 for consent as required under Section 19(2) read with Section 19(1) of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 (SICA). In its hearing held on 06.03.1995, BIFR while taking note of Allahabad Bank's suggestions, inter alia observed that as the lead bank, the Allahabad Bank had to release need-based working capital on the basis of a single window concept and that banks can ask for continuance of existing guarantees but not new guarantees. The BIFR also observed that it was necessary for the banks to adopt a more pragmatic,
